Where no particular mode or, election is required by law, the Trustees shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting of the Church, or a meeting called for that purpose, announcement for such meeting having been given.

Before real estate is purchased for the use of the local church, the Trustees shall see that the church in all places where the law will permit is incorporated, and that the Articles of Incorporation shall provide that the local church be subject to the Government of the "Church of God in Christ," as from time to time authorized and declared by the General Assembly of said church that the business affairs of the church shall be managed by a Board of Trustees elected and organized according to the provisions of said government.

Such articles shall further provide that such corporation shall have power to acquire, hold, sell and convey property both real and personal. When this is done, all property acquired shall be deeded directly to the Church in its corporate name. It is required that all deeds conveying church property shall contain the following clause;

"In Trust that said premises shall be maintained and dispose of as a place of worship for the ministry and membership of the "Church of God in Christ," subject to the doctrine, laws and usages of said Church as from time to time declared by the General Assembly of said Church"

In no case may the Trustees mortgage or encumber the real estate to meet the current expenses of the church, and they may in no case transfer the real estate of the Church without the written consent of the Church, and the written consent of the Overseer, having jurisdiction, for their faithfulness to their trust they shall be amenable to the local church to which they shall make annual report.

ARTICLE 15
TRIALS

Deacons of the Local Church shall be appointed and removed by the Pastor. Local churches may be tried and disorganized in the manner as herein after set forth, when charged with any of the following offenses and found guilty:

Persistently violating the provisions of the law enacted by the General Assembly, or refusing to conform to the legal requirements of the constituted authorities of the Church:

Sustaining and supporting a Pastor who teaches doctrines contrary to the articles of Faith of our church;

Sanctioning immoral practices by members and refusing to take legal steps prescribed by the constitution for the trial of persons charged with the commission of such offenses;

When any local church by official act or declaration or by non-performance of any of the official duties imposed upon it by the government of this church as found in our constitution, by-laws, shall offend in any of the foregoing particulars, any member of such church, with the consent of the Bishop having jurisdiction, may file a complaint with the State Board, charging that such church has committed one or more of the foregoing offenses; thereupon, the State Overseer may appoint a court of five Elders to summon witnesses, to hear evidence on behalf of the prosecution and the defense, and to render judgment in the case.

Twenty days before the trial of such church, the time of which shall be fixed by the court, written notice shall be served upon the church board of the Church against which complaint is made; such notice shall give the time and place of such trial, and shall contain a correct copy of the complaint and other charges stated therein.

"The Church so charged shall have the right to be represented by counsel at the trial, such counsel to be a member in good standing of the Church of God in Christ" The State Board shall appoint an Elder of the Church to conduct the prosecution.

In case the Church so charged shall be found guilty by the court it shall be disorganized by the State Overseer and Board, unless it satisfies the members of the Board that it repents of its evil way, and will conform to the government and faith of our Church, and recognize the constituted authorities of the Church.

All members of the churches convicted as above who repent or disclaim their guilt of the offenses for which said church may be disorganized, shall be entitled to letters in good standing by the Overseer and may unite with other churches of our faith and order.

Members of local churches shall be tried by the Pastor and the local church with the right appeal to the State Board, whose decision shall be final. An ordained Elder shall be tried by the State Board with the right of appeal to the General Council. A State Supervisor likewise will have the same right of appeal.

THE ELIGIBILITY OF ELDERS

The certificate of credentials of an Elder are valid only as long as his life adorns the Gospel of Christ, and his teachings are in harmony with the Church of God in Christ. Any Elder, Evangelist or member acting as pastor of a church, who teaches contrary doctrines, or causes dissention, or in any way proves his inability as a Pastor, may be removed by a State Overseer of a General Beard, and another appointed in his place,

All charges against an Elder shall be in writing, signed by his accuser or accusers. He shall be allowed counsel which counsel shall be a member of the "Church of God in Christ". Should the counsel be guilty of improper conduct, the court may refuse to hear him, and also punish him. In case the Elder so accused be found guilty by the unanimous judgment of the Court, after having been tried, according to the rules of evidence, judgment of the court shall be pronounced; such judgment may take the form of expulsion from the church and ministry, or that suspension for a limited time from his membership and ministry.

The trial of an Overseer, will be the same as an Elder with the exception, He shall be tried before the Board of Bishop with the right of an appeal to the General Assembly.

The trials of a bishop shall be that of an elder with these exceptions; He shall be tried before the General Counsel with the right of the General Assembly. All trials shall be held according to the following scriptures: Deut.17:6; I Tim.5:19; 2nd Cor.13:1.

ARTICLE 16 LOCAL MINISTERS

A member of a local church to be licensed to preach must first be recommended to the Overseer having jurisdiction, by his pastor and the church. Only an ordained minister may administer water baptism, or the ordinances of the church.

A licensed minister shall be tried by the pastor and church of which he is a member, with the right of appeal to the Overseer or State Board.

ARTICLE 17

We believe that governments are God-given Institutions for the benefit of mankind. We admonish and exhort our members to honor magistrates, and the powers that be, and to respect and obey the civil laws.

We hereby and herewith declare our loyalty to the President and the Constitution of the United States, and pledge fidelity to the flag for which the Republic stands but as God-fearing, peace-loving and law-abiding people, we claim only our inheritance as American citizens namely: to worship God according to the dictates of our own conscience.

We believe that the shedding of human blood, or the taking of human life, is contrary to the teachings of Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, and as a body, we are averse to war in all its forms.

ARTICLE 18
AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION

The provisions of this Constitution may be altered or amended by two-third majority vote of all the members of the General Assembly, present and voting, with the exception of Sections a, b, and c of Article 9 of this Constitution. As soon as alterations or amendments shall have been adopted as herein before provided, the result of the vote shall be announced by the General Secretary, whereupon, such alterations or amendments shall have full force and effect.
