PREFACE

The Office of the General Secretary feels gratified to present for the first time, a comprehensive list of Certified Amendments, Proposed Amendments to the Constitution of the Church of God in Christ, Inc., and Resolutions Passed by the General Assembly from 1968 to 1990. This most recent production is indicative of the design of the Office of the General Secretary to assure that the officialdom and constituency of the Church of God in Christ are thoroughly equipped with adequate knowledge of General Assembly transactions to deal with the progress and governance of our great Church in this changing age and highly termological society.

The adequacy of this volume has been certified by the fact that the drafts have been carefully scrutinized, edited and verified to assure their accuracy.

The Office of the General Secretary wishes to express its gratitude to the Presiding Bishop L. H. Ford and the General Board for the profound leadership of our Church. A debt of gratitude is owed to those General Assembly Chairmen and Officers who have steered the deliberate assemblies in adjudicating the proceedings subscribed herein. The most recent Chairman, Dr. Frank Ellis has been quite supportive and encouraging in this endeavor Bishop Roy L. H. Winbush deserves a special kind of thanks for his guidance and assistance. Elder Jerry Macklin with his professional acumen has been indispensable in this production. Bro. Eddie Allen rendered invaluable service in editing and proofing. Ms. Christina Edwards, Computer Specialist deserves special recognition for services rendered.

Thanks to others who might have in some way made a contribution.

This production is designed for the use of Bishops, Supervisors, National Officials, Pastors, Elders, Ministers, Missionaries and Lay Members of the General Church. It should be used and restricted to that purpose and should not be released to any persons or groups without authorization.

Bishop G. R. Ross
General Secretary

CERTIFIED AMENDMENTS

(Filed With the Secretary of the State of Tennessee)

1952 Amendment to the Charter

We, the ministers and members of the Church of God in Christ, who hold the Holy Scriptures as contained in the Old and New Testaments as our rule of faith and practice, in accordance with the principles of our faith and government, do hereby amend and modify our By-laws and Constitution, to-wit: All former Articles and Constitution shall be modified to amend as follows:

ARTICLE I CHANGE OF NAME

That the Corporate name of this Corporation shall be “CHURCH OF GOD IN CHRIST,” and that the Headquarters shall be 958 South Fifth Street, Memphis, Tennessee.

ARTICLE 2 SENIOR BISHOP

Nothing in this Constitution shall operate to deprive Bishop C. H. Mason, 1121 Mississippi Avenue, Memphis, Tennessee, the present Chief Apostle, Founder and Senior Bishop, of the authority he now holds as Chief Apostle of the Church of God in Christ.

ARTICLE 3 LOCAL CHURCHES

The membership of the Local Church shall consist of all who have been set in order as a church by those authorized to do so, after having declared their faith in Jesus Christ as their Savior, and their belief in our doctrines, and their willingness to submit to our government. Local Churches may be set in order by the overseer having jurisdiction, or an Elder authorized by him.

ARTICLE 4 ORGANIZATION OF CHURCHES

When it seems clear to a State Overseer that a church set in order should not continue as such, it may be disorganized by him and his Board. In case a local church becomes disorganized, any such property that exists may in no way be diverted to other purposes, but shall pass to the control of the State Board for the use of the Church at large as the State Board shall direct, and the Trustees holding such property for the disorganized church, shall sell or dispose of the same only on order, and under the direction of the appointed agent or the State Board and turn over such funds to said agent.

No Board of Trustees may divert property from the use of the “Church of God in Christ,” No Board of Trustee shall refuse the pulpit or the use of a local “Church of God in Christ,” for religious or other purposes to a duly authorized officer of the General Assembly or his representative or representatives.

ARTICLE 5 WITHDRAWAL OF CHURCHES

No local church may withdraw as a body from the “Church of God in Christ” or in any way sever the relation thereto, except by provision of the General Assembly

ARTICLE 6
CREDENTIALS OF DELEGATES

Secretaries of the several State Assemblies shall furnish certificates of elections of the delegates severally elected to the General Assembly, and shall also send a certificate of such election to the General Assembly, Secretary of the Church.

ARTICLE 7
THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

The General Assembly is the only doctrine expressing, and law-making authority of the Church. The General Assembly shall be composed of a Chairman, Ordained Elders, Board of State Overseers, Board of Bishops, and such lay delegation as the General Assembly may promote.

The General Assembly shall meet annually at the time and place designated by the Board of Bishops. The General Assembly shall elect by a two-thirds vote of those present and voting, two or more Bishops who shall hold office during good behavior, and shall have general supervision of the Church, and who shall compose the Board of Bishops; provided, however, that Bishop C. H. Mason, the present Senior Bishop, shall retain his present power and authority during his life-time, but upon his death said authority shall revert to the Board of Bishops.

The General Assembly shall elect a general Board composed of ten members or more who shall be trustees in trust for the Corporation, and shall compose the Board of Home and Foreign Missions, Publications, Church Extension, Education and Ministerial Relief. Said Board shall transact all business affairs of the Church, and any other matters that may properly come before it, subject to the approval of the Board of Bishops.

Said Board shall be presided over by one of the Bishops. The General Assembly shall be presided over by one of the Bishops. The General Assembly shall be presided over by the Bishops jointly and severally. The General Assembly shall elect its other officers, and organize itself for the transactions of its business according to its wisdom and pleasure.

The General Assembly shall elect a General Secretary, who shall hold office during good behavior, and who shall be the Secretary of the General Assembly, and the Board of Bishops. The General Assembly shall elect a General Treasurer, who shall hold office during good behavior. The General Assembly shall elect by lot from among the male elders of the Church, as many Bishops as it may deem necessary, who shall hold office during good behavior, and who shall constitute the Board of Bishops, provided, however, that they shall be appointed by the present Senior Bishop during his life-time, but upon his decease, they shall be elected by the General Assembly, as provided in this Constitution.

ARTICLE 8
EXTRA SESSION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

The Board of Bishops or a majority thereof shall have the power to call an extra session of the General Assembly, in case of emergency, and to fix the time and place thereof.

ARTICLE 9
POWERS AND RESTRICTIONS
OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

The power and authority of the General Assembly to legislate for the Church. to make such rules and regulations over all the departments as it may deem best, is limited by the following restrictions:

- a.) It shall not set aside or change any of our articles of faith, nor shall it establish any new doctrines contrary to the doctrines that now exist in the church,
- b.) The General Assembly shall not abolish our representative form of government nor the General Superintendency, nor deprive it of any of the authority given it by this Constitution.
- c.) No person shall be seated in the General Assembly who has not been duly elected as a delegate or an alternate by a recognized State Assembly of the Church of God in Christ.

The General Assembly shall not deprive our ministers or members of a fair orderly trail or appeal in case of conviction.

ARTICLE 10
RULES OR ORDER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

The General Assembly shall adopt rules of order governing its manner of organization, procedure, committees, and all other matters pertaining to the conduct of its business. It shall be the judge of the elections qualifications of its own members.

ARTICLE 11
OVERSEERS OF THE CHURCH OF GOD IN CHRIST

The overseer will be appointed by the Senior Bishop and may be removed for cause, by the Senior Bishop or his appointee.

The Overseer shall have general supervision of the Church of God in Christ, in their respective State. The Overseers, jointly and severally shall appoint, ordain those who have been elected to be Elders. The Overseers may organize, re-organize local churches. The Overseer presiding over the State Assembly, shall assign Pastors to the several charges within the bounds of his jurisdiction.

The Overseers may appoint District Superintendents over the several districts within their jurisdiction. The Overseer presiding over the State Assembly shall decide all questions of order subject to an appeal to the General Assembly, but all questions of law shall be decided by the General Assembly.

ARTICLE 12
BOARD OF BISHOPS

The Bishops shall organize as a Board and shall arrange for an assignment to the members thereof, the work over which they shall have special jurisdiction. The Board of Bishops shall have supervision of all boards and the plans adopted by any Board must have the approval of the Board of Bishops.

The Board of Bishops shall constitute a Board to arrange courses of study for licensed ministers. The Board of Bishops shall have the power to do anything else in the service of the Church not otherwise provided for, according to their wisdom and in harmony with the Constitution of the Church.

ARTICLE 13

ARTICLE 14

TRUSTEES OF LOCAL CHURCHES

All Trustees of Local Church property shall be members of the "Church of God in Christ," In all cases where the law requires a special mode of election of Church trustees, that mode shall be strictly followed. Where no particular mode or election is required by law, the trustee shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting of the Church, or a meeting called for the purpose, announcement for such meeting having been given.

Before real estate is purchased for the use of the local church, the Trustees shall see that the church in all places where the law will permit is incorporated, and that the Articles of Incorporation shall provide that the local church be subject to the Government of "Church of God in Christ,” as from time to time authorized and declared by the General Assembly of said Church, and that the business affairs of the church shall be managed by a Board of Trustees elected and organized according to the provisions of said government.

Such articles shall further provide that such corporation shall have power to acquire, hold, sell and convey property both real and person. When this is done, all property acquired shall be deeded directly to the Church in its corporate name. It is required that all deeds conveying church property shall contain the following clause:

“In Trust that said premises shall be maintained and dispose of as a place of worship for the ministry and membership of the “Church of God in Christ,” subject to the doctrine, laws and usages of said Church as from time to time declared by the General Assembly of said Church.”

In no case may the Trustees mortgage or encumber the real estate to meet the current expenses of the church, and they may in no case transfer the real estate of the church without the written consent of the Church,, and the written consent of the Overseer, having jurisdiction, for their faithfulness to their trust they shall be amenable to the local church to which they shall make annual report.

ARTICLE 15 TRIALS

Deacons of the Local Church shall be appointed and removed by the Pastor Local churches may be tried and disorganized in the manner as herein after set for, when charged with any of the following offenses and found guilty:

Persistently violating the provisions of the law enacted by the General Assembly or refusing to conform to the legal requirements of the constituted authorities of the Church.

Sustaining and supporting a Pastor who teaches doctrines contrary to the articles of Faith of our church.

Sanctioning immoral practices by members and refusing to take legal steps prescribed by the constitution for the trial of persons charged with the commission of such offenses;

When any local church by official act or declaration or by non-performance of any of the official duties imposed upon it by the government of this church as found in our constitution, by-laws, shall offend in any of the foregoing particulars, any member of such church, with the consent of the Bishop having jurisdiction, may file a complaint with the State Board, charging that such church has committed one or more of the foregoing offenses; thereupon, the State Overseer may appoint a court of five Elders to summon witnesses, to hear evidence on behalf of the prosecution and the defense, and to render judgment in the case.

Twenty days before the trial of such church, the time of which shall be fixed by the court written notice shall be served upon the church board of the Church against which complaint is made; such notice shall give the time and place of such trial, and shall contain a correct copy of the complaint and other charges stated therein.

The Church so charged shall have the right to be represented by counsel at the trial, such counsel to be a member in good standing of the “Church of God in Christ.” The State Board shall appoint an Elder of the Church to conduct the prosecution.

In case the Church so charged shall be found guilty by the court it shall be disorganized by the State Overseer and Board, unless it satisfies the members of the Board that it repents of its evil way, and will conform to the government and faith of our Church, and recognize the constituted authorities of the Church.

All members of the churches convicted as above who repent or disclaim their guilt of the offenses for which said church may be disorganized, shall be entitled to letters in good standing by the Overseer and may unite with other churches of our faith and order.

Members of local churches shall be tried by the Pastor and the local church with the right appeal to the State Board, whose decision shall be final. An ordained Elder shall be tried by the State Board with the right of appeal to the General Council. A State Supervisor likewise will have the same right of appeal.

THE ELIGIBILITY OF ELDERS

The certificate of credentials of an Elder are valid only as long as his life adores the Gospel of Christ, and his teachings are in harmony with the Church of God in Christ. Any Elder, Evangelist, or member acting as pastor of a church, who teaches contrary doctrines, or causes dissension, or in any way proves his inability as a Pastor, may be removed by a State Overseer of a General Board, and another appointed in his place.

All charges against an Elder shall be in writing, signed by his accuser or accusers. He shall be allowed counsel which counsel shall be a member of the "Church of God in Christ". Should the counsel be guilty of improper conduct, the court may refuse to hear him, and also punish him. In case the Elder so accused by found guilty by the unanimous judgment of the Court, after having been tried, according to the rules of evidence, judgment of the court shall be pronounced; such judgment may take the form of expulsion from the church and ministry, or that suspension for a limited time from his membership and ministry.

The trial of an Overseer will be the same as an Elder with the exception, He shall be tried before the Board of Bishops with the right to of an appeal to the General Assembly.

The trial of a Bishop shall be that of an Elder with these exceptions: He shall be tried before the General Council with the right of an appeal to the General Assembly All trials shall be held according to the following scriptures: Duet. 17:6; 1 Tim. 5:19; 2Cor. 13:1.

ARTICLE 16 LOCAL MINISTERS

A member of a local church to be licensed to preach must first be recommended to the Overseer having jurisdiction, by his pastor and the church. Only an ordained minister may administer water baptism, or the ordinances of the church.

A licensed minister shall be tried by the pastor and church of which he is a member, with the right of appeal to the Overseer or State Board.

ARTICLE 17

We believe that governments are God-given institutions for the benefit of mankind. We admonish and exhort our members to honor magistrates, and the powers that be, and to respect and obey the civil laws.

We hereby and herewith declare our loyalty to the President and the Constitution of the United States, and pledge fidelity to the flag for which the Republic stands but as God-fearing, peace-loving and law-abiding people, we claim only our inheritance as American citizens namely: to worship God according to the dictates of our own conscience.

We believe that the shedding of human blood, or the taking of human life, is contrary to the teachings of Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. and as a body, we are averse to war in all its forms.

ARTICLE 18
AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION

The provisions of this Constitution may be altered or amended by two-third majority vote of all the members of the General Assembly present and voting, with the exception of Section a, b, and c of the Article 9 of this Constitution. As soon as alterations or amendments shall have been adopted as herein before provided, the result of the vote shall be announced by the General Secretary whereupon, such alterations or amendments shall have full force and effect.¹

1968 AMENDMENT TO CHARTER OF INCORPORATION

At a meeting of the General Assembly of the CHURCH OF GOD IN CHRIST, and in Constitutional Convention duly called and held at the office of said Corporation in Memphis Tennessee, on the 2nd day of February, 1968, the following resolution was adopted:

WHEREAS, the Constitution and By-laws of the Church of God in Christ have not been amended, modified, or supplemented since December 1952; and

WHEREAS, it is claimed from time to time that the Constitution has been altered by virtue of custom, usage, and practice; and

WHEREAS, since 1952, the Church of God in Christ has witnessed the demise of its Chief Apostle, Founder, and Senior Bishop, C. H. Mason; and

WHEREAS, the 1952 Constitution in Article 7 thereof provided that Senior Bishop Mason would retain his present power and authority during his life time and upon his death said authority would revert to the Board of Bishops; and

WHEREAS, the Church of God in Christ has witnessed since 1952, as well as since the death of Bishop C. H. Mason, a great growth in its membership, its Pastors, Bishops new Departments and physical structure; and

WHEREAS, the 1952 Constitution fails to speak in many areas in which the Church has grown spiritually, administratively, financially and numerically; and

WHEREAS, the financial structure of the Church of God in Christ may have been adequate in the beginning but is wholly inadequate today because the rapid development, progress, and expanding needs of the Church demand that the National Church be self-sustaining; and

WHEREAS, there has developed a controversy with respect to where the authority and leadership of the Church of God in Christ is placed by its 1952 Constitution since the death of Senior Bishop Mason; and

WHEREAS, ON THE 29TH DAY OF October, 1967, in a Consent Decree entered in Cause 69683-2 R. D., Chancery Court of Shelby County, Tennessee, the parties to the controversy acknowledged "that the ultimate question is Where The Authority of the Church of God in Christ is Placed By Its Constitution", and further the parties recognize and agree that the ultimate solution of these questions and all related chancellery questions should be determined by the General Assembly of the Church of God in Christ in a Constitutional Convention called for that purpose; and

WHEREAS, such Constitutional Convention is now convened, pursuant to the Settlement Decree heretofore referred to, on the date stated by Chancellor Rond in his Order, for the purpose of resolving the ultimate issue of authority and responsibility within the Church as well as to modernize the Constitution of the Church of God in Christ in the light of its national and international growth spiritually, administratively, and numerically;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Constitution and By-laws of the Church of God in Christ be amended as follows:

1. That the General Assembly is the only doctrine-expressing and law-making authority of the Church;

2. That a General Board of twelve (12) Bishops be elected for a term of four (4) years by the General Assembly form the Board of Bishops to conduct the executive and administrative affairs of the Church between meetings of the General Assembly; and

3, That the General Assembly elect for a term of years from the General Board a Presiding Bishop. The Presiding Bishop shall be the Chief Executive Officer and would be empowered to conduct the executive affairs of the Church of God In Christ between meetings of the General Assembly and the General Board, with the limitation that the action of the Presiding Bishop would be subject to the approval of a majority of the General Board and the General Assembly;

4. That neither the presiding Bishop nor any other member of the General Board can serve at the same time as an Officer of the General Assembly, the General Council, or the Board of Bishops.

5. That all civil officers of the Corporation known as the Church of God in Christ shall be elected by a majority vote of the members of the General Assembly, present and voting, and ecclesiastically, the heads of departments of the Church of God in Christ shall be appointed by the General Board for a term of years, provided such are approved by a majority of the General Assembly present and voting.

6. That the office of Senior Bishop and Executive Board of Bishops be abolished.

7. That any Amendment to the Constitution of the Church of God in Christ that is inconsistent with the Amendment herein is hereby repealed.

WE, Bishop A. B. McEwen, Bishop J. S. Bailey, and Bishop J.O. Patterson, the President, Vice- President, and Secretary, respectively, of the Church of God in Christ, a Corporation, chartered and organized by and under the laws of the State of Tennessee, in pursuance to the directions from the Board of Directors of said Corporation, hereby certify that at a meeting of the General Assembly of said Corporation, legally called and held at the office of said Corporation, in the City of Memphis, Shelby County, Tennessee, the within and foregoing Amendments to the Charter, Constitution, and By-Laws were adopted by an affirmative vote of the members of the General Assembly, representing more than two-thirds majority vote of all of the members of the General Assembly, present and voting, declaring the desire of the members of the said General Assembly of said Corporation to amend the Charter, Constitution, and By-Laws of said Corporation, as set out hereinabove, and said Amendments were duly entered in the minutes of said Corporation.

NOW, THEREFORE, we hereby certify the fact of the Adoption of said Amendments by the members of the General Assembly of said Corporation for the purposes set out to the end that this certificate may be duly recorded in the office of the Secretary of State.

WITNESS our hands this 2nd day of February, 1967.²

²President- Bishop A. B. McEwen, Vice President-Bishop .J S. Bailey, Secretary. Bishop J.O, Patterson.

Certified by Joe & Carr, Secretary of State, Tennessee, February 23rd, 1968

1972 AMENDMENT TO THE CHARTER OF THE
CHURCH OF GOD IN CHRIST
DECLARATION OF FAITH AND PREAMBLE

We, the members of the Church of God in Christ, hold the Holy Scriptures as contained in the Old and New Testaments of our Bible as a rule of our Faith and Practice. We believe that Governments are God-Given Institutions for the Benefit of mankind. We admonish and exhort our members to honor magistrates and civil authorities and to respect and obey civil laws.

We hereby declare our loyalty to the President of the United States of America and to the Constitution of the United States of America. We pledge allegiance and fidelity to the flag, and to the Republic for which it stands.

However, as God-fearing, peace-loving, and law-abiding people, we claim our heritage and natural right to worship God according to the dictates of our own conscience. Therefore, we abhor, war, for we believe that the shedding of human blood or the taking of human life is contrary to the teachings of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. And, as a body of Christian believers, we are adverse to war in all of its forms, and believe in the peaceful settlement of all International disputes.

With pride and gratitude we dedicate and commemorate this revision of the Charter, to the memory and honor of the beloved Founder and Chief Apostle of our Church, the late Bishop C. H. Mason, whose vision and wisdom played an indispensable part in developing the principles and precepts upon which our great Church has been built.

And, in order to more effectively carry on the program and work of our Church, we do hereby amend and modify our Charter, as set out hereinafter, and repeal the provisions of all former Charters, Rules, Regulations, Practices, and Usages, inconsistent herewith.

PART II

AMENDMENTS

PASSED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

NOVEMBER, 1968 - NOVEMBER, 1990

RULES GOVERNING THE GENERAL BOARD AND PRESIDING BISHOP

Whereas, it was the intent of the Bishops, Elders, and Members of the Church of God in Christ, Inc., to maintain the Doctrine and Principles of the Church of God in Christ, Inc., as taught by Bishop C. H. Mason, our Senior Bishop and Founder now deceased.

THEREFORE, it is recommended that the following sections be adopted as rules for governing the General Board and Presiding Bishop.

SECTION A - THE GENERAL BOARD

1. The General Assembly shall elect twelve bishops from among the Board of Bishops who shall comprise and be designated as the General Board. After being duly elected by the General Assembly the General Board shall conduct the affairs of the Church of God in Christ, Inc. when the General Assembly of the Church of God in Christ, Inc. is not in session, and its decisions shall be final unless the same are overruled, amended, repealed, or modified, by the General Assembly.
2. The above named members shall be sanctified through the truth and baptized with the Holy Ghost. They shall have been loyal to the church for over a period of fifteen (15) years or more. They shall not be guilty of:
 - a. Adultery or immoral character.
 - b. Smoking, drinking or any unclean habit,

If they be found guilty of the above named charges, they shall be removed from office by the Board of Bishops with the right of appeal to the General Assembly..

3. The General Board members shall be men of unimpeachable character and in good health.
4. The General Board consisting of twelve (12) members, when conducting business sessions, its quorum shall consist of seven (7) members.
5. The members of the General Board shall be elected for a term of four years. The term shall be computed from the time of installation and each member installed. Members of the General Board may succeed themselves in office.
6. In the event a vacancy in the General Board occurs while the General Assembly is not in session, the remaining members of the General Board shall serve with the vacancy until such time as the General Assembly shall be convened either in a regular or special session, at which time the General Assembly shall fill such position.
7. The General Board shall meet at least three (3) times during each calendar year- April, November and any other time deemed necessary. However, the General Board may have special meetings when and if it shall be necessary
8. The General Board shall make its report to the General Assembly, in writing during the November session of the General Assembly of each calendar year. The actions of the General Assembly shall be final.

9. The General Board shall keep in close contact with all actions of the General Church and auxiliaries and other participants of the General Church. The Board shall examine all applicants for auxiliary leaders of the General Church, They shall closely examine all persons to be elevated to the Bishopric.
10. No member of the General Board can serve at the same time as an officer of the General Assembly, General Council, the Board of Bishops or any national auxiliary of the General Church.

SECTION B - GENERAL BOARD, PRESIDING BISHOP
FIRST AND SECOND ASSISTANT PRESIDING BISHOP

1. The General Assembly shall elect from the duly elected General Board a Presiding Bishop, a First Assistant Presiding Bishop and a Second Assistant Presiding Bishop.
2. The Presiding Bishop will automatically become President of the Corporation upon election. In case of death or disability, the First Assistant Presiding Bishop shall become the Acting Presiding Bishop until the next general election. He may hold office until he reaches his 74th birthday. However, if he is in good health and has served the church well, the rules may be suspended and he may be elected for another term of four (4) years.
3. The Presiding Bishop, after being duly elected by the General Assembly, shall have power to appoint all State Bishops subject to the approval of the majority of the General Board and a majority of the pastors of said state, sign all appointments with the General Secretary after being approved by the General Board. The Presiding Bishop shall not pastor more than one church at a time during his tenure of office. All of his actions shall be subject to the approval of the General Board.

As an Executive he shall not be guilty of the following:

1. Adultery or immoral character.

PASSED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
NOVEMBER, 1968 - NOVEMBER, 1990

RESOLUTION
MAINTENANCE OF PROPERTY

WHEREAS, we have property of great value at our National Headquarters in Memphis, Tennessee that should be kept up in its general appearance, and

WHEREAS, our grounds and buildings need constant care that will prevent rapid deterioration resulting in costly repairs,

THEREFORE, IT IS RECOMMENDED that we hire full time maintenance personnel, comprising of two men and two women.¹²

RESOLUTION
TENURE OF OFFICE FOR HEADS OF NATIONAL DEPARTMENTS AND AUXILIARIES AND GENERAL OFFICERS

WHEREAS, A tenure of office has been given the Presiding Bishop, the First Assistant Presiding Bishop, the Second Assistant Presiding Bishop and the members of the General Board of four years, and

WHEREAS, All departmental heads, namely, Sunday School Department, Youth Department, Home and Foreign Mission Board, Evangelist Department, Women's Department, Music Department, Pastors and Ministers' Fellowship, Department of Education and all other National Officers which shall be appointed by the Presiding Bishop, with the approval of the General Board and all other elected national officers shall have a tenure of office.

THEREFORE WE RECOMMEND, a tenure of office of four years to run concurrently with the term of the Presiding Bishop, retroactive to November, 1968. They may be removed for cause.¹³

RESOLUTION
CREATION OF A BUDGET COMMITTEE

WHEREAS, there is a need for a closer look at the financial needs of our church, both the income and the expenditure, and because of that, there is a need for the creation of a Budget Committee, and

WHEREAS, we have raised much money and we have steadily found ourselves in financial difficulty, there is a feeling that there should be a closer observation of the financial structure through the eyes of a Budget Committee.

THEREFORE, WE RECOMMEND THE FOLLOWING;

1. That a Budget Committee be created to work with the Departments and Auxiliaries in establishing a Budget for all National Departments and Auxiliaries including the National Spring Call Meeting, the National Convocation and Schools,
2. That we would maintain the General Fund for the centralization of all monies, that an allocation of funds for the operation of all National Boards and the two National Meetings, namely, the Spring Call Meeting and the General Convocation be made from the General Fund.

¹² Passed 4/69.

¹³ Passed 4/69.

Further, that a detailed study be made to ascertain the real needs of all National Departments and Auxiliaries in order to formulate a unified budget for the National Church.

3. Further, that after all needs of the Budget have been met, a specified amount as determined by the Budget Committee be left in the General Fund and the surplus over and above the specified amount be used to establish a savings account for the Church as a special reserve fund.
4. That all funds disbursed from the General Fund and Reserve Fund will require two signatures in addition to being countersigned by the Presiding Bishop.
5. That persons handling the funds will be bonded.
6. That a Certified Public Accountant be hired by the Church.
7. That the Church would operate on a fiscal year beginning October 1 and ending September 30; an abbreviated period of nine months for the current, January 1 through September 30; and an itemized financial statement of income and expenditure will be prepared for each fiscal year and available to every delegate of the General Assembly at each November National Convocation.¹⁴

RESOLUTION EDUCATION- C.H. MASON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

WHEREAS, the educational level of our society is constantly rising; and,

RESOLUTION
APPOINTMENT TO NATIONAL OFFICE

WHEREAS, Many persons in the Church of God In Christ hold several National Offices to which they have been appointed or elected by The Presiding Bishop or General Board, and

WHEREAS, There are many qualified persons that could assume some of these responsibilities and do an efficient job.

BE IT RESOLVED that no person in the Church of God in Christ hold more than one elected or appointed National Office for an example: A State Bishop may preside over a state and hold one National Office

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that action be taken immediately to relinquish all excessive offices by April, 1986.⁶⁷

RESOLUTION
JURISDICTIONAL ASSEMBLIES

Whereas, Article III, Section C. of the Constitution assumes that there will be Jurisdictional Assemblies, and

Whereas, it is impossible for Ecclesiastical Jurisdictions to comply with constitutional provision in the election of delegates to the General Assembly without a duly organized Jurisdictional Assembly, and

Whereas, it has been brought to our attention that in a number of Ecclesiastical Jurisdictions there is no Jurisdictional Assembly;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED,

- a. That, all Ecclesiastical jurisdictions are hereby and henceforth required to establish and maintain a Jurisdictional Assembly.

RESOLUTION
JURISDICTIONAL PASTORS & ELDERS COUNCIL

Whereas, Article VIII, Section B. paragraphs D and F implies that there will be Jurisdictional Pastors & Elders Councils in all Ecclesiastical Jurisdictions, and

Whereas, It has come to our attention that in many Ecclesiastical Jurisdictions there is no duly organized Pastors an Elders council, and

Whereas, If charges of misconduct were brought against a pastor or elder, it would be impossible for that pastor or elder to be tried in accordance with the trial provisions of the Constitution, without a duly organized Pastors and Elders Council in that particular Jurisdiction. Therefore be it resolved, ⁶⁶ Passed 11/13/85. Submitted by The Elders' Council.

⁶⁷ Passed 11/13/85. Submitted by the Elders Council.

- a. That, all Ecclesiastical Jurisdictions are hereby and henceforth required to establish a Pastors and Elders Council.

RESOLUTION
NATIONAL PASTORS AND ELDERS COUNCIL ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Whereas, for the past (10) years the National Pastors and Elder Council has sponsored an Annual Conference, at which workshops and seminars were held, and

Whereas, we believe the National Pastors and Elders Council according to the Constitution, is operating within its preview in sponsoring an annual conference, and

Whereas, the National Pastors and Elders Council is operating within the same frame work of the Constitution it should be allowed to hold its' Annual Conference without opposition or interferences from any other department, office or officer of the church, therefore, be it resolved:

- a. That, the General Assembly endorse the National Pastors and Elders Conference,⁶⁸

⁶⁸Passed 4/90.
