- b. Upon receipt of the request for an appeal hearing, the Chairman of the General Council shall forward such request to the Chairman of the Judicial Review Committee.
- c. The Chairman of the Judicial Review Committee, shall send copies of the appeal document to the Legal Advisor and all members of the Judicial Review Committee.
- d. The Chairman in consultation with the Legal Advisor and committee members shall determine whether or not the appellant, in the appeals document has met all the constitutional and legal requirements, and whether or not the General Council have jurisdiction in the particular case.
- e. In the event that the Chairman, in consultation with committee members and the Legal Advisor, determines that the appellant in the appeals document has not met the constitutional and legal requirements, or that the General Council does not have jurisdiction, the committee shall recommend to the Chairman of the General Council that the request for an appeal hearing be denied. In such case, a letter, setting forth the particulars and justification for denial, would be sent to the appellant and appellee.
- f. In the event of Judicial Review Committee decides to hear the appeal, the Chairman of the committee will set the date, time and place of the hearing, and so notify, by certified mail, the appellant and appellee.
- g. After the hearing (or after hearing all arguments) the committee will make its decision by a majority vote of those members present and who participated in the hearing. The committee shall also report its findings to the Chairman of the General Council.
- h. As soon as possible after receiving the report of the committee, the Chairman of the General Council shall bring the Committee before the General Council to make its report. The General

Council shall vote the Committee's report up or down (approve or disapprove), and the Chairman of the General Council shall notify the appellant and the appellee of the General Council's decision.

3. Stay of Execution
 - a. In cases where penalties imposed could deprive a Pastor of his livelihood or otherwise do irreparable damage to this reputation and image, the Judicial Review Committee shall have authority to order a stay of execution until the appeal has been heard.

Section III, Finance Committee

1. The Finance Committee shall be composed of: Chairman, Finance Secretary, Treasurer and such other persons as the Chairman of the General Council and the Executive Committee may determine.
2. The Finance Committee shall raise offerings taken in General Council meetings and conferences.
3. The Finance Committee shall advise the Chairman of the General Council and the Executive Committee on financial matters.
4. The Finance Committee shall prepare an annual budget to be submitted to the Executive Committee for its consideration and subsequent approval by the General Council.

Section IV, Resolution Committee

1. The Resolution Committee shall be composed of nine (9) members, who shall be appointed by the Chairman of the General Council.
2. The Resolution Committee shall have responsibility for putting the General Council's legislative agenda in resolution form to be presented to the General Assembly.

Section V, Rules Committee

1. The Nominating Committee shall be composed of nine (9) members, who shall be appointed by the Chairman of the General Council, and they shall serve for a term of four (4) years or until their successors are elected.
2. The Nominating Committee shall present a slate of nominees, one nominee for each position to be filled, to the General Council to be voted on, prior to each election.

Section VI, Regional Directors

1. Regional Administrators shall be an extension of or adjutants to the office of the Chairman of the General Council. Their duties and responsibilities shall be limited to the area to which they are assigned.
2. The duties and responsibilities of the Regional Administrators shall be:
 - a. To work with and among the Chairmen of the Jurisdictional Councils within the area to which he has been assigned; to encourage support for the General Council's programs.

Section VII, Regular Meetings

1. The General Council shall meet annually during the time of the annual Holy Convocation of the Church of God in Christ and it shall also hold an annual and regional conference.

Section VII, Special Meetings

1. The Chairman, with the approval of the Executive Committee, shall have authority to call special meetings of the General Council when deemed necessary.

ARTICLE VI AMENDING THE RULES

1. These rules may be amended at any regular meeting of the General Council by a three-fourth (3/4) majority vote.
